

The image features a central red speech bubble with a white border and a downward-pointing tail. Inside the bubble, the text "How would you spend today if you knew Jesus was coming tomorrow?" is written in white, bold, sans-serif font. The background consists of several concentric circles and curved lines in light gray and white, some solid and some dashed, creating a sense of depth and movement.

Mark 13:32–37

32 “But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. 33 Take heed, watch and pray; for you do not know when the time is. 34 It is like a man going to a far country, who left his house and gave authority to his servants, and to each his work, and commanded the doorkeeper to watch. 35 Watch therefore, for you do not know when the master of the house is coming—in the evening, at midnight, at the crowing of the rooster, or in the morning— 36 lest, coming suddenly, he find you sleeping. 37 And what I say to you, I say to all: Watch!”
