ROMANS 3:23

A crown of thorns, a symbol of suffering and sacrifice, is the central focus of the image. It is constructed from a dense, circular arrangement of dry, brown, and sharp-tipped branches and sticks. The crown is placed on a large, weathered piece of driftwood that has been bleached to a light tan color. The entire scene is set on a sandy beach with small pebbles and shells scattered around. The background is a soft, overcast sky, creating a somber and contemplative atmosphere.

How can we overcome the punishment for our sins?

FOR THE WAGES OF SIN IS DEATH,
but the free gift of God
is eternal life
in Christ Jesus our Lord.

in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That not perish, but have eternal life.

∞ John 3:14-15

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him
should not perish but have eternal life.
For God did not send His Son into the world
to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through Him.
