Man's search for God

Paul addresses the Areopagus

Acts 17:22 – 23

THE UNKNOWN GOD

Call to Worship

10 Now Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer and put fire in it and laid incense on it and offered unauthorized fire before the LORD, which he had not commanded them.
2 And fire came out from before the LORD and consumed them, and they died before the LORD.

Leviticus 10:1 2

ESV

ROMANS

Romans 1:21-23

²¹ For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened.

²² Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools

²³ and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images made to look like a mortal human being and birds and animals and reptiles.

ROMANS

Romans 1:24-25

²⁴ Therefore God gave them over in the sinful desires of their hearts to sexual impurity for the degrading of their bodies with one another. ²⁵ They exchanged the truth about God for a lie, and worshiped and served created things rather than the Creator—who is forever praised. Amen.

7 You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, when he said:

8 ““This people honors me with their lips,
but their heart is far from me;

9 in vain do they worship me,
teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.””

Matthew 15:7-9, ESV

The image features a serene sunset over a wide, calm body of water. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright, golden glow that reflects on the water's surface. The sky transitions from a deep orange near the horizon to a soft, hazy blue at the top. In the foreground, an open Bible lies flat on a wooden deck or pier, its pages illuminated by the warm light of the setting sun. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and contemplative.
