OBADIAH

Edom's Violence Against Jacob

10 Because of the violence done by brother Jacob,
his shame shall cover you and you shall be confounded on the day that you are rebuked.

11 On the day that you
are rebuked,
you shall be confounded on the day that you
are rebuked,
and foreigners
shall plunder
his wealth.

the vision of Obadiah.

the Lord GOD concerning Edom from the LORD,
because he has
said among
the nations,
"I will restore
the fortunes of Jacob, and they shall rebuild
their cities, and they shall rebuild the wrecked places
of their land,
and they shall
rebuild the
wrecked places
of their land,
and they shall
rebuild the
wrecked places
of their land."

A person is shown in a dark, dimly lit environment, likely a workshop or a place of quiet reflection. Their hands are clasped together in a prayerful or contemplative gesture, held close to their face. The person is wearing a dark, long-sleeved garment. In the foreground, a wooden hammer and an anvil are visible on a workbench, suggesting a craft or a process of forging. The overall mood is one of solemnity and introspection.

What causes us to struggle in our faith?

Pride is deceptive!

Obadiah 1:2 – 4

Greediness is unfulfilling!

Obadiah 1:5 – 9

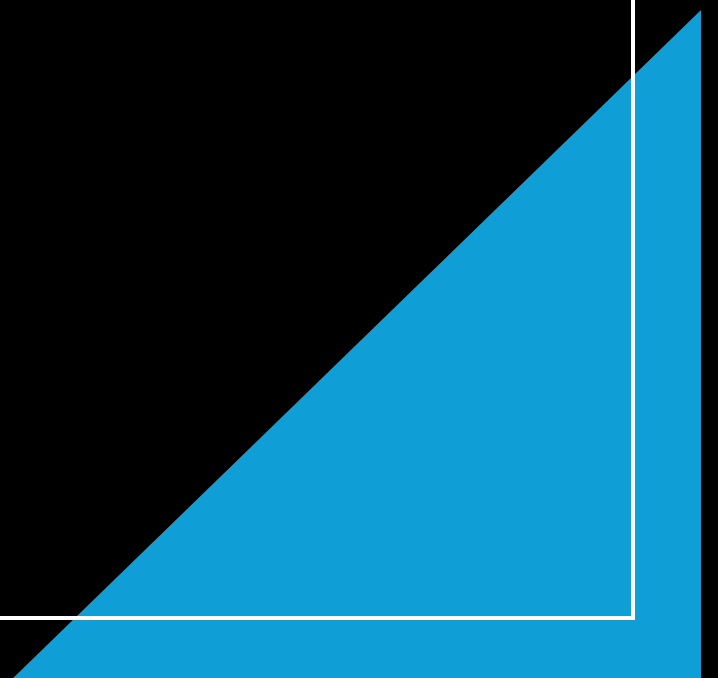

Vengeance is empty!

Obadiah 1:10 – 14

Judgement is sure!

Obadiah 1:15 – 21
